

NJCPA Names Sarah Krom President-Elect for 2017/18 – Youngest to Hold Office

June 1, 2017

Sarah Krom, CPA, managing partner, SKC and Co., CPAs, LLC of Boonton Township, New Jersey, has been named president-elect of the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (NJCPA), beginning her one-year term on June 1, 2017. At age 34, Ms. Krom is the youngest person to hold that position and the third female.

“Sarah’s dedication to the NJCPA is indisputable,” said Ralph Albert Thomas, CGMA, CEO and executive director of the NJCPA. “We are pleased to have her commitment and enthusiasm at the executive level as we did throughout her many activities here at NJCPA. We look forward to working with her this year and when she becomes president.”

Ms. Krom joined the NJCPA in 2003, and steadily held positions of note within the organization. She is a former chair and vice chair of the Young CPAs Council, which is now called the Emerging Leaders Council. She also serves on the NJCPA Scholarship Fund and the Strategic Planning Committee and has been an active member of the Bergen Chapter. In 2011, Krom was voted by NJCPA as one of the “30 most influential CPAs under 30,” and in both 2012 and 2016 she was recognized as an NJCPA “Woman of Note.” She is also a member of the American Institute of CPAs.

Ms. Krom, an honors graduate of The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, holds a B.S in accounting. She and her family reside in Jefferson.
